קדש

Kadesh

Kiddush

First we make kiddush and drink the first cup, leaning to the left.

On Shabbat add:

יוֹם הַשִּׁשִּׁי. וַיְכֻלּוּ הַשָּׁמַיִם וְהָאָרֶץ וְכָל צְבָאָם. וַיְכַל אֱלֹהִים בַּיּוֹם אֲשֶׁר מְלַאכְתּוֹ מִכָּל הַשְּׁבִיעִי בַּיּוֹם וַיִּשְׁבֹּת עָשָׂה אֲשֶׁר מְלַאכְתּוֹ הַשְּׁבִיעִי מִכָּל שָׁבַת בּוֹ כִּי אֹתוֹ וַיְקַדֵּשׁ הַשְּׁבִיעִי יוֹם אֶת אֱלֹהִים וַיְבָרֶךְ עָשָׂה. לַעֲשׂוֹת: אֱלֹהִים בָּרָא אֲשֶׁר מְלַאכְתּוֹ

The sixth day. Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the hosts of them. And on the seventh day G-d had ended His work which He had made; and He rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had made. And G-d blessed the seventh day and sanctified it; because in it He had rested from all His work which G-d created and made.

Your attention please:

סַבְרִי מָרָנָן

הָעוֹלָם מֶלֶךְ אֱלֹהֵינוּ יְיָ, אַתָּה בָּרוּךְ הַגָּפֶן. פְּרִי בּוֹרֵא

Blessed are You, Lord our G-d, King of the Universe, Creator of the fruit of the vine.

On Shabbat add the words in parentheses.

בָּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ, אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם וְרוֹמְמָנוּ עָם מִכָּל בָּנוּ בָּחַר אֲשֶׁר וַתִּתֶּן בְּמִצְוֹתָיו. וְקִדְּשָׁנוּ לָשׁוֹן מִכָּל

You have, in love, ordained for us, Lord our G-d (Shabbat for rest), days of joy and festive times of gladness, and this day of (rest and of) this Holiday the festival of Matzah, a holy convocation, a memorial (in your love) of the Exodus from Egypt. You have chosen us and sanctified us above all peoples, and You have given us an inheritance of (loving favor,) joy and gladness, days of (Shabbat and) festivals.

On Saturday night add:

בָּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, בּוֹרֵא מְאוֹרֵי הָאֵשׁ. בָּרוּךְ אַתָּה בֵּין לְחֹשֶׁךְ, אוֹר בֵּין לְחֹל, קֹדֶשׁ בֵּין הַמַּבְדִּיל הָעוֹלָם מֶלֶךְ אֱלֹהֵינוּ יְיָ שַׁבָּת קְדֻשַּׁת בֵּין הַמַּעֲשֶׂה. יְמֵי לְשֵׁשֶׁת הַשְּׁבִיעִי יוֹם בֵּין לָעַמִּים, יִשְׂרָאֵל קִדַּשְׁתָּ. הַמַּעֲשֶׂה יְמֵי מִשֵּׁשֶׁת הַשְּׁבִיעִי יוֹם וְאֶת הִבְדַּלְתָּ, טוֹב יוֹם לִקְדֻשַּׁת בֵּין הַמַּבְדִּיל יְיָ אַתָּה בָּרוּךְ בִּקְדֻשָּׁתֶךָ. יִשְׂרָאֵל עַמְּךָ אֶת וְקִדַּשְׁתָּ הִבְדַּלְתָּ לִקֹדֶשׁ. קֹדֶשׁ

Blessed are You, Lord our G-d, King of the Universe, Creator of fire. Blessed are You, Lord our G-d, King of the Universe, who has made a distinction between sacred and profane, between light and darkness, between Israel and other peoples, between the seventh day and the six days of work. You have made a distinction between the holiness of the Shabbat and the holiness of a Festival, sanctifying the seventh day above all others. It is with Your holiness that You have distinguished and sanctified Your people Israel. Blessed are You, Lord, who has made a distinction in the degrees of holiness.

בָּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם הַזֶּה. לִזְמַן וְהִגִּיעָנוּ וְקִיְּמָנוּ שֶׁהֶחֱיָנוּ

Blessed are You, Lord our G-d, King of the Universe, who has preserved us in life, sustained us, and enabled us to reach this time.

הא לחמא עניא

Hei Lachma Anya

This is the bread of affliction which our fathers did eat in the land of Egypt. Let all who are hungry come in and eat; let all who need come in and celebrate Passover. This year we celebrate it here, may we celebrate it next year in the land of Israel. This year we are in exile, next year may we be free.

הָא לַחְמָא עַנְיָא דִּי אֲכָלוּ אַבְהָתָנָא

Mah Nishtanah — The Four Questions

> The children now ask the four questions...

Why is this night different from all other nights?

מַה נִּשְׁתַּנָּה הַלַּיְלָה הַזֶּה מִכָּל הַלֵּילוֹת.

On all other nights we eat either leavened or unleavened bread — Matzah, but on this night exclusively Matzah.

שֶׁבְּכָל הַלֵּילוֹת אָנוּ אוֹכְלִין חָמֵץ מַצָּה: כֻּלּוֹ הַזֶּה הַלַּיְלָה מַצָּה אוֹ

On all other nights we eat all kinds of vegetables, but on this night, bitter herbs.

שֶׁבְּכָל הַלֵּילוֹת אָנוּ אוֹכְלִין שְׁאָר מָרוֹר: הַזֶּה הַלַּיְלָה יְרָקוֹת

On all other nights we do not dip even once, but on this night we do so twice.

שֶׁבְּכָל הַלֵּילוֹת אֵין אָנוּ מַטְבִּילִין שְׁתֵּי הַזֶּה הַלַּיְלָה אֶחָת. פַּעַם אֲפִילוּ פְּעָמִים:

On all other nights we eat either sitting or reclining, but on this night we all lean.

שֶׁבְּכָל הַלֵּילוֹת אָנוּ אוֹכְלִין בֵּין יוֹשְׁבִין מְסֻבִּין: כֻּלָּנוּ הַזֶּה הַלַּיְלָה מְסֻבִּין וּבֵין

עבדים היינו

Avadim Hayinu

We were slaves to Pharaoh in Egypt, and the Lord our G-d brought us out from there with a strong hand and outstretched arm. If the most holy, blessed be He, had not brought out our fathers from Egypt, then we, our children, and our children's children would all be slaves to Pharaoh in Egypt. Now, even would all of us be wise, all of us of great understanding, all of us elders, all of us familiar with the Scripture, it would still be our duty to tell the story of the Exodus from Egypt, and the more we find to say of the Exodus from Egypt, the better.

עֲבָדִים הָיִינוּ לְפַרְעֹה בְּמִצְרָיִם וַיּוֹצִיאֵנוּ יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מִשָּׁם בְּיָד חֲזָקָה וּבִזְרֹעַ נְטוּיָה. וְאִלּוּ לֹא הוֹצִיא הַקָּדוֹשׁ בָּרוּךְ הוּא אֶת אֲבוֹתֵינוּ מִמִּצְרַיִם הֲרֵי אָנוּ וּבָנֵינוּ וּבְנֵי בָנֵינוּ מְשֻׁעְבָּדִים הָיִינוּ לְפַרְעֹה בְּמִצְרָיִם. וַאֲפִילוּ כֻּלָּנוּ חֲכָמִים כֻּלָּנוּ נְבוֹנִים

מַעֲשֶׂה בְּרַבִּי אֱלִיעֶזֶר וְרַבִּי יְהוֹשֻׁעַ עֲקִיבָא וְרַבִּי עֲזַרְיָה בֶּן אֶלְעָזָר וְרַבִּי בְּרַק. בִּבְנֵי מְסִבִּים שֶׁהָיוּ טַרְפוֹן וְרַבִּי כָּל מִצְרַיִם בִּיצִיאַת מְסַפְּרִים וְהָיוּ תַּלְמִידֵיהֶם שֶׁבָּאוּ עַד הַלַּיְלָה אוֹתוֹ קְרִיאַת זְמַן הִגִּיעַ רַבּוֹתֵינוּ לָהֶם וְאָמְרוּ שַׁחֲרִית: שֶׁל שְׁמַע

It happened with Rabbi Eliezer, Rabbi Joshua, Rabbi Elazar ben Azariah, Rabbi Akivah, and Rabbi Tarfon: they were once dining in Bnei Brak, and were speaking about the Exodus from Egypt all that night until their disciples came and said to them, “Our teachers, the time has come to recite the morning Shema!”

אָמַר רַבִּי אֶלְעָזָר בֶּן עֲזַרְיָה הֲרֵי שֶׁהֵאָמַר זָכִיתִי וְלֹא שָׁנָה שִׁבְעִים כְּבֶן אֲנִי שֶׁדָּרָשָׁה עַד בַּלֵּילוֹת מִצְרַיִם יְצִיאַת אֶת תִּזְכֹּר לְמַעַן שֶׁנֶּאֱמַר זוֹמָא. בֶּן יְמֵי כֹּל מִצְרַיִם מֵאֶרֶץ צֵאתְךָ יוֹם יְמֵי כֹּל הַיָּמִים. חַיֶּיךָ יְמֵי חַיֶּיךָ. אוֹמְרִים וַחֲכָמִים הַלֵּילוֹת. לְהָבִיא חַיֶּיךָ חַיֶּיךָ יְמֵי כֹּל הַזֶּה. הָעוֹלָם חַיֶּיךָ יְמֵי הַמָּשִׁיחַ: לִימוֹת לְהָבִיא

Rabbi Elazar ben Azariah said, “I am like a man of seventy, and I did not appreciate why the story of the exodus from Egypt should be told at night until Ben Zoma explained it thus: “The Torah says, ‘That you may remember the day when you came out of the land of Egypt all the days of your life.’ Had it said ‘The days of your life,’ it would have referred only to the daytime. But as it says, ‘All the days of your life,’ it intends to include the nights. The Sages, however, say, had it said only ‘the days of your life,’ it would have referred only to this world, but as it says, ‘All the days of your life,’ it means to include also the days of Moshiach.

בָּרוּךְ הַמָּקוֹם. בָּרוּךְ הוּא. בָּרוּךְ בָּרוּךְ יִשְׂרָאֵל. לְעַמּוֹ תּוֹרָה שֶׁנָּתַן הִבְּרָה בָנִים אַרְבָּעָה כְּנֶגֶד הוּא. וְאֶחָד רָשָׁע. וְאֶחָד חָכָם. אֶחָד תּוֹרָה. לִשְׁאוֹל: יוֹדֵעַ שֶׁאֵינוֹ וְאֶחָד תָּם.

Blessed is the Omnipotent! Blessed be He! Blessed is He who gave the Torah to His people Israel! Blessed be He! Four times does the Torah refer to the enquiring child... This indicates that the Torah thought of four kinds of enquiring children — the wise child, the wicked child, the simple child, and the one that is unable to enquire by himself...

חָכָם מַה הוּא אוֹמֵר מָה הָעֵדֹת וְהַחֻקִּים אֶתְכֶם אֱלֹהֵינוּ יְיָ צִוָּה אֲשֶׁר וְהַמִּשְׁפָּטִים הַפֶּסַח כְּהִלְכוֹת לוֹ אֱמוֹר אַתָּה וְאַף אֲפִיקוֹמָן: הַפֶּסַח אַחַר מַפְטִירִין אֵין

Which is the wise child's question? "What are the 'testimonies and the statutes and the judgments' which the Lord our G-d has commanded you?" you shall answer him by telling him of the laws of Passover, down to the law that no 'afikoman' may follow the Paschal lamb.

רָשָׁע מַה הוּא אוֹמֵר מָה הָעֲבוֹדָה וּלְפִי לוֹ. וְלֹא לָכֶם לָכֶם. הַזֹּאת כָּפַר הַכְּלָל מִן עַצְמוֹ אֶת שֶׁהוֹצִיא שִׁנָּיו אֶת הִקְהֵה אַתָּה וְאַף בְּעִקָּר. בְּצֵאתִי לִי יְיָ עָשָׂה זֶה בַּעֲבוּר לוֹ וֶאֱמֹר שָׁם הָיָה אִלּוּ לוֹ וְלֹא לִי מִמִּצְרָיִם. נִגְאָל: הָיָה לֹא

Which is the wicked child's question? "What do you mean by this service?" he attributes the service to You, deliberately excluding himself, rejecting the primary principles of Judaism. Therefore you must retort upon him quoting, "This is done because of that which the Lord did for me when I came out of Egypt." For me, and not for him; if he had been there he would not have been redeemed.

תָּם מַה הוּא אוֹמֵר, מַה זֹּאת. וְאָמַרְתָּ מִמִּצְרַיִם יְיָ הוֹצִיאָנוּ יָד בְּחֹזֶק אֵלָיו עֲבָדִים: מִבֵּית

Which is the simple child's question? "What is this?" you shall answer him by saying: "with a strong hand the Lord brought us out from Egypt, from the house of bondage."

וְשֶׁאֵינוֹ יוֹדֵעַ לִשְׁאוֹל אַתְּ פְּתַח לוֹ הַהוּא בַּיּוֹם לְבִנְךָ וְהִגַּדְתָּ שֶׁנֶּאֱמַר בְּצֵאתִי לִי יְיָ עָשָׂה זֶה בַּעֲבוּר לֵאמֹר

If the child cannot engage with a question, you shall open the subject to him, as it is said, "And you shall show your child on that day, saying, This is done because of that which the Lord did for me when I came out of Egypt."

מִמִּצְרָיִם:

Should it be from the first of the month [of Nisan]? No: for the Torah says, 'On that day.' Does 'That day' mean the daytime? No: for the Torah continues 'This is done,' It would not have said, 'This is done,' except to refer to the time when the Matzah and bitter herbs are there before you. In remotest days our ancestors were idolaters, but now G-d has brought us to worship Him, as it is said, 'And Joshua said unto all the people: Thus says the Lord, G-d of Israel, Your fathers dwelt on the other side of the river in old time, including Terach, the father of Abraham, and the father of Nachor: and they served other gods. And I took your father Abraham from the other side of the river, and led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed and gave him Isaac, And I gave unto Isaac, Jacob and Esau: and I gave unto Esau mount Seir, to possess it; but Jacob and his children went down into Egypt.

Cover the Matzah and raise your cup of wine.

And it is this [same promise] that has been maintained to our forefathers and to us, for there has not been only one to rise up against us to destroy us, but in every generation there arises against us those who would destroy us, and the Holy One (blessed be He) delivers us from their hands.

The Midrashic Exposition

Inquire and learn what Laban, the Syrian, sought to do to Jacob our father. For while Pharaoh decreed a sentence against the male children, Laban sought to destroy the whole [of the family of Jacob], as it is said, 'A Syrian [Laban] would have caused my father to perish, and he went down to Egypt, and sojourned there with but a few, and became there a great nation, mighty and populous.' 'And he went down into Egypt,' inspired thereto by the word of G-d. 'And he sojourned there.' This teaches that our ancestor Jacob did not go down to Egypt to remain there, but only to sojourn; as it is further said, 'They said moreover unto Pharaoh, Only to sojourn in the land have we come, for your servants have no pasture for their flocks; for the famine is sore in the land of Canaan; now therefore, we ask you, let your servants dwell in the land of Goshen.' 'With but a few,' as it is said, 'Your fathers went down into Egypt with seventy persons; and now the Lord your G-d has made you as the stars of heaven for multitude.' '...and became there a nation.' This teaches that Israel became distinguished. '...great and mighty,' as it is said, 'And the children of Israel were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and waxed exceeding mighty, and the land was filled with them.' '...and populous,' as it is said, 'I have caused you to multiply as the bud of the field, and you have increased and waxen great, and you have come to excellent ornaments; your shape is perfected, and your hair is grown, whereas you are naked and bare.' 'And the Egyptians treated us evilly, and afflicted us and laid upon us hard bondage:' 'And the Egyptians treated us evilly,' as it is said 'Come now, let us handle them [the Jews] wisely; lest they multiply, and it will come to pass that when there falls out any war, they will join also with our enemies and fight against us, and so leave out of our land.' '...and afflicted us,' as it is said, 'Therefore they set taskmasters in charge of them to afflict them with their burdens, and they built for Pharaoh warehouse cities (Pithom and Rameses).' '...and laid upon us hard bondage,' as it is said, 'And the Egyptians made the children of Israel to serve with rigor [...] and they embittered their lives with hard bondage, with bricks and mortar, and with all sorts of work in the field, all their work which they served with rigor.' 'And when we cried unto the Lord, G-d of our fathers, the Lord heard our voice and looked on our affliction and our labor and our oppression.' 'And when we cried unto the Lord, G-d of our fathers,' as it is said, 'And it came to pass in course of time that the king of Egypt died; and the children of Israel sighed from their bondage, and they cried, and their cry came up to G-d from their bondage.' 'The Lord heard our voice,' as it is said, 'And G-d heard their groaning, and G-d remembered His covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob.' 'And He saw our affliction.' This refers to Egyptian tyranny over Jewish family life; as it is said, 'And G-d looked upon the children of Israel, and G-d understood.' 'And our labor.' This refers to the condemned male children, as it is said, 'Every son that is born you shall cast into the river, and every daughter you shall save alive.' '...and our oppression.' This refers to its severity, as it is said, 'And I have also seen the oppression with which the Egyptians oppressed them.' 'And the Lord brought us forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terribleness, and with signs and wonders.' 'And the Lord brought us forth out of Egypt.' Not by the hands of an angel, nor by the hands of a seraph, nor by the hands of a messenger; but it was the Holy One, blessed be He, He Himself, as it is said, 'For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the first-born in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment; I am the Lord.' 'For I will pass through the land of Egypt,' i.e., I, myself, and not an angel; '...and I will smite all the first-born,'

The Ten Plagues

Pour three times from your cup of wine into a broken dish, as we say:

דָּם וָאֵשׁ וְתִמְרוֹת עָשָׁן:

Blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.

Another explanation is, that these expressions: 'A mighty hand,' indicates two plagues, 'An outstretched arm,' another two plagues, 'Great terribleness,' another two plagues, 'Signs' another two plagues, and 'Wonders' another two.

These are the ten plagues which the Holy One, blessed be He, did bring upon the Egyptians in Egypt, namely:

Rabbi Jose of the Galilee said: From where do we know that while the Egyptians suffered ten plagues in Egypt, they were at the Red Sea smitten with fifty plagues? Regarding Egypt it is said, 'Then the magicians said unto Pharaoh, This is the finger of G-d.' While regarding the Red Sea it is said, 'And Israel saw that great hand with which the Lord wrought against Egypt, and the people feared the Lord, and believed in the Lord and in His servant Moses.' Now, if with the finger of G-d they were smitten with ten plagues, then we may say that in Egypt they were smitten with ten plagues and at the Red Sea they were smitten with fifty plagues.

Rabbi Eliezer said, From where can we tell that each plague that the Holy One, blessed be He, brought upon the Egyptians in Egypt was the equivalent of four plagues? For it is said, 'He cast upon them the fierceness of His anger, wrath, and indignation, and trouble, sending evil angels among them.' Now 'wrath' indicates one plague, 'indignation' a second, 'trouble' a third, and 'sending evil angels' a fourth; hence we may say that in Egypt they were smitten with plagues equal to forty, while at the Red Sea they were smitten with plagues equal to two hundred.

Rabbi Akiva said, From where may we say that each plague that the Holy One, blessed be He, brought upon the Egyptians in Egypt was equal to five plagues? For it is said, 'He cast upon them the fierceness of His anger, wrath, and indignation, and trouble, sending evil angels.' The 'fierceness of His anger' is one, 'wrath' is a second, 'indignation' is a third, 'trouble' is a fourth, and 'sending evil angels' is a fifth. Hence we may say, that in Egypt they were smitten with plagues equal to fifty, while at the Red Sea they were smitten with plagues equal to two hundred and fifty.

רבן גמליאל

Rabban Gamliel

Rabban Gamaliel said, Whoever does not discuss these three items on the Passover has not fulfilled his duty, and these are they: The Passover offering; the Matzah (unleavened bread); the Maror (bitter herbs).

רַבָּן גַּמְלִיאֵל הָיָה אוֹמֵר כָּל שֶׁלֹּא

What is the reason for the sacrifice of the Passover offering which our fathers ate in the time of the Temple? For the Holy One, blessed be He, passed over the houses of our ancestors in Egypt, as it is said, 'You shall say it is the sacrifice of the Lord's Passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt when He smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. And the people bowed the head and worshiped.

Hold the Matzah.

This Matzah (unleavened bread) Which we now eat: Why is this eaten? Since the dough of our ancestors had not time to rise before the Supreme King of kings, the Holy One, blessed be He, appeared to them and redeemed them, as it is said, 'And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth from Egypt, for it did not rise, because they were thrust out of Egypt and could not wait, nor had they prepared for themselves any provisions.'

Hold the Maror.

This Maror (bitter herbs) which we now eat: What does it mean? It is eaten because the Egyptians embittered the lives of our forefathers in Egypt, as it is said, 'And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, with mortar and with bricks, and with all types of work in the field; all their work wherein they made them serve was with rigor.'

In every generation each one of us should regard himself as though he himself has gone out from Egypt, as it is said, 'And you shall show your child on that day, saying, "This is done because of that which the Lord did for me when I came out of Egypt." Not our ancestors alone did G-d redeem then, but He redeemed us with them, as it is said, 'And He brought us out from there, that He might bring us in to give us the land which He swore unto our fathers.'

Therefore we are obliged to thank, to praise, to glorify, to exalt, to honor, to bless, to extol, and to give reverence to Him who performed for us, as well as for our forefathers, all these wonders. He has brought us forth from bondage to freedom, from sorrow to joy, from mourning to festival, from darkness to great light, and from slavery to redemption. Now, therefore, let us sing before Him a new song, Praise G-d!

Praise the Lord. Praise, O servants of the Lord, praise the Name of the Lord. Blessed be the Name of the Lord from this time forth and forever more. From the rising of the sun until the sunset, the Lord's Name is to be praised. The Lord is high above all nations, and His glory above the heavens. Who is like unto the Lord our G-d, that has His seat on high, that humbles himself to behold the things that are in heaven and in the earth? He raises up the poor out of the dust and lifts up the needy from the dunghill; that He may set them with princes, with the princes of His people. He makes the barren woman to keep house, and to be a joyful mother of children. Praise the Lord.

Blessed are You, Lord our G-d, King of the Universe, who redeemed us and our ancestors from Egypt, and has brought us to this night to eat thereon Matzah and Maror. So, Lord our G-d, the G-d of our fathers, may You enable us to reach other festivals and holidays in future, with gladness at the rebuilding of Your city and with joy in Your service, there (in Jerusalem rebuilt) may we partake of the sacrifices and of the Passover offerings (of the Passover offerings and the sacrifices) offered upon your altar, in your favor, when we will offer to you a new song for our redemption and our salvation. Blessed are You, Lord, redeemer of Israel.

We drink the second cup, leaning to the left.

Washing for Matzah

We wash our hands and make the blessing.

Blessed are You, Lord our G-d, King of the Universe, who has sanctified us with Your commandments, and commanded us concerning the washing of the hands.

The Blessing Over Matzah

We say the hamotzi blessing below holding all three matzot.

Blessed are You, Lord our G-d, King of the Universe, who brings forth bread from the earth.

Eating the Matzah

Put down the third matzah for the next blessing. (Have in mind that this blessing covers the afikoman as well.)

Blessed are You, Lord our G-d, King of the Universe, who hast sanctified us with Your commandments, and commanded us to eat unleavened bread.

בָּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם אֲשֶׁר קִדְּשָׁנוּ בְּמִצְוֹתָיו וְצִוָּנוּ עַל אֲכִילַת מַצָּה:

We eat a piece (about half a matzah) from the top two matzot, leaning to the left.

Maror

Bitter Herbs

We dip the maror into the charoset (and then shake it off so as to not sweeten the taste). We make the blessing, and eat the maror.

Blessed are You, Lord our G-d, King of the Universe, who has sanctified us with Your commandments, and commanded us concerning the eating of the bitter herbs.

The "Hillel Sandwich"

We make a sandwich: the third matzah, with the chazeret dipped in charoset. We say the following, and eat leaning to the left.

So did Hillel do in the time when the Temple stood: He used to take a piece of the Passover lamb, Matzah, and Maror, and eat them together, so as to fulfil literally what is said in the Torah, "With Matzah and Maror shall they eat it".

A Song of Ascents. When the Lord returns Zion from captivity, we will have been as if in a dream. Then our mouth will be filled with laughter, and our tongue with exultation: then they'll say among the nations, The Lord has done great things for them. The Lord has done great things for us, we are glad. Bring back our captivity, Lord, as the streams in the south. They who sow in tears shall reap in joy. Though he goes on his way weeping, bearing the store of seed, he shall come back with joy, bearing his sheaves,

Let us say Grace.

The others answer, and the leader repeats:

Blessed be the Name of the Lord from this time forth and forever.

With the sanction of those present: We will bless Him of whose bounty we have eaten.

The others answer, and the leader repeats:

Blessed be He of whose bounty we have eaten, and through whose goodness we live.

Blessed are You, Lord our G-d, King of the universe, who feeds the whole world with your goodness, with grace, with loving-kindness and with tender mercy; He gives food to all flesh, for His loving-kindness endures forever, and through His great goodness toward us, food has never failed us, nor will it fail us forever and ever, for His great Name's sake, since He, G-d nourishes and sustains all beings, and does good unto all, and provides food for all His creatures which He has created. Blessed are You, Lord, who gives food unto all.

We thank You, Lord our G-d, for You did give as an inheritance unto our fathers a desirable, good, and ample land, and for You did bring us forth, Lord our G-d, from the land of Egypt, and did deliver us from the house of bondage; as well for Your covenant which You have sealed in our flesh; as well as for Your Torah which You have taught us; Your statutes which You have made known unto us; the life, grace, and loving-kindness which You have bestowed upon us; and for the food wherewith You do constantly feed and sustain us every day, in every time, at every hour.

For all this, Lord our G-d, we thank You and bless You. Blessed be Your Name by the mouth of all life continually, forever. As it is written, And you shall eat and be satisfied, and you shall bless the Lord your G-d for the good land which He has given you. Blessed are You, Lord, for the land and for the food.

Have mercy, Lord our G-d, upon Israel Your people, and upon Jerusalem Your city, upon Zion the abiding place of Your glory, upon the kingdom of the house of David Your anointed, and upon the great and holy house called by Your Name. O our G-d, our Father, tend to us, nourish us, sustain us, support us, relieve us, and speedily, Lord our G-d, grant us relief from all our troubles. We beseech You, Lord our G-d, let us not be in need neither of the gifts from people of flesh and blood, nor of their loans, rather only of Your hand, which is full, open, holy, and ample; that we may not be ashamed nor confounded forever and ever.

On Shabbat add:

Be pleased, Lord our G-d, to fortify us by Your commandments, and by the commandment of the seventh day, this great and holy Shabbat, since this day is great and holy before You, that we may rest and repose then in love, according to the commandment, Your will. With Your favor, Lord our G-d, grant us such repose that there be no trouble, grief, or lamenting on the day of our rest. Let us, Lord our G-d, behold the consolation of Zion Your city, and the rebuilding of Jerusalem Your holy city, for You are the master of salvation and of consolation.

Our G-d, G-d of our fathers: May there rise, and come, and reach, and be seen, and accepted, and heard, and addressed, and remembered, our remembrance and our redemption, with the remembrance of our fathers, of Moshiach the son of David Your servant, of Jerusalem Your holy city, and of all Your people the house of Israel, before You, bringing deliverance and well-being. Bringing grace, loving-kindness, mercy, good life, and peace on this day of the Passover, this holiday. Remember us, Lord our G-d, thereon, for our wellbeing; be mindful of us for blessing; and save us unto good life; by Your promise of salvation and mercy, spare us and be gracious unto us, have mercy upon us, and save us, for our eyes are bent upon You, for You are the gracious and merciful G-d and King.

And rebuild Jerusalem the holy city speedily in our days. Blessed are You, Lord, who in His compassion rebuilds Jerusalem. Amen.

Blessed are You, Lord our G-d, King of the universe; O G-d, our Father, our King, our Mighty One, our Creator, our Redeemer, our Maker, our Holy One, the Holy One of Jacob, our Shepherd, the Shepherd of Israel, O King, who is kind and deals kindly with all, day by day He has dealt kindly, does deal kindly, and will deal kindly with us, He has bestowed, He does bestow, He will forever bestow benefits upon us, yielding us grace, loving-kindness, and mercy, and relief, deliverance, and prosperity, blessing and salvation, consolation, sustenance, and support, mercy, life, peace, and all good, of no manner of good will He let us be in want.

The All-merciful shall reign over us forever and ever. The All-merciful shall be blessed in heaven and on earth. The All-merciful shall be praised throughout all generations, glorified in us forever and for all eternity, and honored in us forever, everlasting. May the All-merciful grant us an honorable livelihood. May the All-merciful break off the yoke of exile from our neck, and lead us upright to our land. May the All-merciful send a plentiful blessing upon this house and upon this table at which we have eaten. May the All-merciful send us Elijah the prophet (let him be remembered for good), who shall give us good tidings, salvation and consolation. May the All-merciful bless my honored father, the master of this house, and my honored mother, the mistress of this house, they, their household, their children, and all that is theirs; us and all that is ours, as our fathers Abraham, Isaac and Jacob were blessed with everything, from everything, comprehensively; so may He bless all of us together (children of the covenant) with a perfect blessing, and let us say, Amen. Both on their and on our behalf may there be such advocacy on high as shall lead to enduring peace; and may we receive a blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the G-d of our salvation; and may we find grace and good understanding in the sight of G-d and man.

On Shabbat add:

May the All-merciful let us inherit the day which shall be wholly a Shabbat and rest in the life everlasting.

May the All-merciful let us inherit the day which is altogether good. May the All-merciful let us merit the days of Moshiach and the life of the world to come. He is a tower of salvation to His king, and shows loving-kindness to His anointed, to David and to his seed, for evermore. He who makes peace in His high places, may He make peace for us and for all Israel, and say, Amen.

Fear the Lord, His holy ones, for there is no want to them that fear Him. Young lions do lack and suffer hunger, but they that seek the Lord shall not want any good. Give thanks unto the Lord, for He is good, for His loving-kindness endures forever. You open Your hand, and satisfy every living thing with favor. Blessed is the man that trusts in the Lord, and whose trust the Lord is.

We drink the third cup, leaning to the left.

Blessed are You, Lord our G-d, King of the Universe, Creator of the fruit of the vine.	בָּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ, אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם הַגָּפֶן. פְּרִי בוֹרֵא

We fill the fourth cup and also the cup of Elijah. The door is opened as we say:

Pour out Your wrath upon the nations who know You not, and upon kingdoms which call not upon Your Name. They have consumed Jacob, and they have desolated His dwelling. Pour out upon them Your indignation; let the fierceness of Your anger overtake them. Pursue them in anger, and destroy them from under the heavens of the Lord.

Not unto us, Lord, not unto us, but unto Your Name give glory, for Your mercy, and for Your truth's sake. Why should the nations say, Where then is their G-d? And our G-d is in the heavens: He does whatsoever He pleases. Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands. They have mouths, but they don't speak; they have eyes, but they don't see; they have ears, but they don't hear; they have noses, but they don't smell; they have hands, but they don't touch; they have feet, but they don't walk; they don't speak through their throat. They that make them shall be like them, everyone that trusts in them. Israel trusts in the Lord: He is their help and their shield. The house of Aaron trusts in the Lord: He is their help and their shield. Those who fear the Lord, trust in the Lord: He is their help and their shield.

Psalm 116

I love the Lord, because He has heard my voice, my supplications. Because He has turned His ear to me, and I will call upon Him as long as I live. The cords of death compassed me, and the pains of Sheol got hold upon me; I found trouble and sorrow. Then I called upon the Name of the Lord; Lord, I beseech You, deliver my soul. Gracious is the Lord, and righteous; our G-d is merciful. The Lord protects the simple: I was brought low and He saved me. Return unto your rest, my soul, for the Lord has dealt bountifully with you. For You have delivered my soul from death, my eyes from tears, my feet from falling. I will walk before the Lord in the land of the living. I believe, for I will speak: I was greatly afflicted: I said in my haste, All men are a lie.

They surrounded me, encompassed me: in the Name of the Lord I will cut them off. They surrounded me like bees; they are quenched as the fire of thorns: in the Name of the Lord I will cut them off. You pushed me that I might fall: but the Lord helped me. The strength and vengeance of our Lord has become my salvation. The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tents of the righteous: the right hand of the Lord acts valiantly. The right hand of the Lord is exalted: the right hand of the Lord acts valiantly. I shall not die, rather live, and declare the works of the Lord. The Lord has chastened me sore, but He has not given me over unto death. Open to me the gates of righteousness, I will enter into them, I will give thanks unto the Lord. This is the gate of the Lord, the righteous shall enter into it.

The breath of every living being shall bless Your Name, Lord our G-d, and the spirit of all flesh shall continually glorify and exalt Your memorial, O our King; from everlasting to everlasting You are G-d; and beside You we have no King who redeems and saves, sets free and delivers, and who supports and answers and has mercy in all times of trouble and distress; we have no King but You. He is G-d of the first and of the last, the G-d of all creatures, the Lord of all generations, who is extolled with many praises, and guides His world with loving-kindness and His creatures with tender mercies. The Lord neither slumbers, nor sleeps; He arouses the sleepers and awakens the slumberers; He makes the dumb to speak, loosens the bound, supports the falling, and raises up the bowed. To You alone we give thanks. Though our mouths were full of song as the sea, and our tongues of exultation as the multitude of its waves, and our lips of praise as the expanses of the cosmos; though our eyes shone like the sun and the moon, and our hands were spread forth like the eagles of heaven, and our feet were swift as deer, we should still be unable to thank You, Lord our G-d and G-d of our fathers, and to bless Your Name for one of the thousands of thousands upon thousands, myriad leagues of events, the favors, miracles and wonders which You have done for us and for our fathers before us. You redeemed us from Egypt, Lord our G-d, and released us from the house of bondage; during famine You fed us, and in plenty You sustained us; from the sword You did rescue us, from pestilence You did save us, and from sore and lasting diseases You delivered us. Thus far Your tender mercy has helped us, and Your loving-kindness has not left us: forsake us not, Lord our G-d, forever. Therefore the limbs which You have put within us, and the spirit and soul which You have breathed into our nostrils, and the tongue which You have set in our mouths: they shall thank, bless, praise, glorify, extol, reverence, make holy, and assign kingship to Your Name our King. For every mouth shall give thanks unto You, and every tongue shall swear unto You; every knee shall bow to You, and whatsoever is lofty shall prostrate itself before You; all hearts shall fear You, and all the inward parts shall sing unto Your Name, as it is written, All my bones shall say, Lord, who is like You? You deliver the poor from him that is too strong for him, the poor and the needy from him that robs them. Who can be likened to You, who can be equated to You, who can be compared to You, G-d, the great, mighty, and awful, most high G-d, Possessor of heaven and earth. We will praise, laud, and glorify You, and we will bless Your holy Name, as it is said (A Psalm of David), Bless the Lord, O my soul; and all that is within me, bless His holy Name.

He who dwells in eternity, exalted and holy is His Name; and it is written, Exult in the Lord, O you righteous; praise is seemly for the just. By the mouth of the just You shall be praised, by the words of the righteous You shall be blessed, by the tongues of the devoted ones You shall be extolled, and in the midst of the holy You shall be praised. In the assemblies also of the multitudes of Your people, the house of Israel, Your Name, our King, shall be glorified with joyous cries in every generation; for such is the duty of all creatures in Your presence, Lord our G-d, G-d of our fathers, to thank, praise, laud, glorify, extol, honor, bless, exalt, and adore, beyond all the words of song and praise of David the son of Yishai, Your servant and anointed.

The concluding blessing for wine and grape juice:

Blessed are You, Lord our G-d, King of the Universe, for the vine and for the fruit of the vine, for the produce of the field, and for the pleasant, goodly and great land in which You did delight, and which You did grant as the inheritance of our forefathers, to eat its fruit, and be satiated with its bounties. Be merciful, please, Lord our G-d, to Israel Your people; to Jerusalem, Your city; to Zion, the dwelling place of Your honor; to Your altar and to Your sanctuary. And
